

Colton Dems

To The Editor:

The Democratic ticket for the town of Colton consisting of Joan Kilroy for town supervisor, Kathy Hayes and Joe Zelinski for town council and Tina Regan Miller for assessor, would like to thank all those who attended the Democratic caucus on Aug. 9.

In addition, we appreciate the support given us in our nominations for the Democratic Party's ticket in the upcoming town elections. We request your continued support in the general election on Nov. 6, 2007 and promise to uphold our campaign platform.

If any individual, regardless of political party affiliation, wishes to have questions answered, please feel free to contact any one, or all, of us. Opportunities to meet the Democratic team will be arranged in the near future.
