

Colton Race

To The Editor:

Open letter to the Colton Democratic Candidates – Kathy Hayes, Joan Kilroy, Tina Regan Miller and Joe Zelinski.

In your Letter to the Editor in the Courier-Observer (9-1-07) you invited questions from the voters and mentioned plans for an opportunity to meet the Democratic Team. I look forward to the event. Will the meeting be presented in a panel discussion format or have a less structured agenda?

I feel it would also be beneficial for all the candidates who are running for office to meet and respond to questions generated by the audience. I know that in years past such meetings were arranged. I believe there was a moderator to help streamline the process. Have any of you heard of plans for such a gathering? If one were arranged would you attend?

Thank you for your time,

J. Christine Murphy
